

Southwestern Pennsylvania Commission Notice of Public Comment Period and Public Meetings

The Southwestern Pennsylvania Commission (SPC) is seeking input from the public on the following draft documents during the public comment period which runs from Wednesday, May 8 and runs through Friday, June 7:

- 2025-2028 Transportation Improvement Plan (TIP) which plans for the region's short-term infrastructure and transportation projects
- Environmental Justice Benefits and Burdens Assessment of the Draft 2025-2028 TIP
- Air Quality Conformity Determination for the Draft 2025-2028 TIP
- Amendment to the region's long-range transportation plan (LRTP) (Appendix IV-1) to reflect updated transportation revenue projections and revised project list

Beginning May 8, 2024, these draft documents will be available for the public's review at www.spcregion.org.

Our organization encourages members of the public to review the draft documents and attend an upcoming public meeting in your community to learn more about our region's transportation and infrastructure planning process. These meetings will be conducted in an open house format. There will be opportunities to review maps, and speak with SPC staff members, representatives from your county planning department, PennDOT representatives, and local transit operators. To obtain a draft copy of the 2025-2028 TIP, please contact Ronda Craig, Public Involvement Coordinator, (412) 391-5590 ext. 0372 or rcraig@spcregion.org.

At these meetings and throughout the duration of the public comment period, members of the public have the opportunity to ask questions and submit their comments to our organization on transportation and infrastructure projects. Comments on these draft documents will be accepted by our staff members at the public meetings. Written comments can also be submitted several ways: email at comments@spcregion.org, an intake form at www.surveymonkey.com/r/SPC_Public_Input, or mailed to Southwestern Pennsylvania Commission, 42 21st Street, Pittsburgh, PA 15222.
