

Appeal Process

If the Complainant does not agree with the decision by the Respondent and cannot come to an informal agreement, the Complainant can directly file an appeal with the Southwestern Pennsylvania Commission Executive Committee:

Southwestern Pennsylvania Commission
ATTN: Chair, Executive Committee
21st Street, Suite 101
Pittsburgh, PA 15222

The SPC's Executive Committee, consisting of 14 members, will investigate and issue an independent decision on the complaint. The decision on appeal will be issued within 60 days after receipt of the appeal. This letter will contain complete information on how and where file an appeal of the SPC Executive Committee's finding.
