Regional Transportation Demand Management Partners' Meeting (TDM)

The Transportation Demand Management (TDM) Partners' Forum meets quarterly to discuss smarter and cleaner ways to travel, including carpooling, public transit, biking, walking, and ridesharing. The forum is open to the public and brings together community members, businesses, and government groups to share ideas and improve transportation in Southwestern Pennsylvania.

Transportation Technical Committee (TTC) The Transportation Technical Committee (TTC) meets monthly to discuss transportation plans, projects, and regional transportation needs. Members review short-term transportation projects, share updates from local, state, and federal agencies, and help guide transportation planning for the region. The committee includes representatives from county planning offices, transportation agencies, and environmental organizations.

Freight Forum

The Freight Forum meets four times a year to discuss how freight transportation supports local businesses and economic growth. Members share ideas to improve freight movement, strengthen connections to markets, and guide roadway projects and grant funding decisions.

Transit Operators Committee (TOC)

The Transit Operators Committee (TOC) meets monthly to support public transportation across the region. Members discuss transit projects, regional coordination, ridesharing options, and ways transit can support economic growth and development.

Planning Directors Forum

County Planning Directors from across the ten-county region meet quarterly to discuss transportation, workforce development, infrastructure, grants, public outreach, and other regional issues. The meetings also provide updates on community engagement efforts and upcoming events.

Transportation Operations & Safety

The Transportation Operations and Safety Forum meets several times a year to bring together traffic engineers, safety experts, and transportation planners. Members share ideas and projects focused on improving transportation safety and efficiency across the region.

Active Transportation Forum

The Active Transportation Forum meets quarterly to discuss ways to support walking and biking in local communities. Members share ideas about programs, funding opportunities, and design improvements, and the public is welcome to attend.
